Brilliant political lecturer and radio talk show host John Rothmann warns that the upcoming election is the most consequential election of our lifetime. What we decide as a nation in this election will significantly affect the next generation, or even the next two.

Rothmann quotes Lincoln's June 16, 1858 speech in which Lincoln declared:

"A house divided against itself cannot stand. I believe this government cannot endure, permanently half slave and half free."

Rothmann believes the same thing can be said about the Left/Right divide in the nation today.

This may be the most thorough and fair election analysis you'll hear before Election Day.

A Presidential Election in Unpredictable Times 2020

John hosts the John Rothmann Show on KGO 810AM and a frequent lecturer on U.S. politics and the presidency. Rothmann is a veteran of numerous political campaigns on the national, state, and local levels, including Richard Nixon's in 1968. The event was free and open to all via Zoom. He is also a long-time friend of mine.

The U.S. Presidential Election is on Tuesday, Nov. 3.
As the election nears we encourage everyone to be sure and vote.

My staff and I deeply appreciate the continuing opportunity to work with you. Please let me know if you have any questions or requests. Thank you.

Sincerely,
